Slack

- Master Communication channel (acmimx2020.slack.com)
 - Invite link will be provided
 - Depending on your role (Chair, Organizer, Volunteer, Author, Attendee...), you may also get invited to private channels
 - Interact with the community, but please use it responsibly
 - Don't use Slack for Q&A, but Sli.do.

Sli.do

- Tools for moderated Q&A
 - ❑ Link (Event Code) and passcode will be provided
 - ❑ Please, register, so your name is displayed with your question to avoid anonymous questions
 - ❑ Rooms will be available for each conference session
 - Labels are available for each contribution (paper, talk, demo, poster...), so they have be assigned to the particular question for a better identification and filtering.
 - ❑ The Chairs formulate the most popular questions to the Presenters, but the Presenters can also answer them directly in Sli.do to boost discussion
 - Comments to others' questions are also possible

Mozilla Hubs (Posters, Demos)

- Lobby with portals (screens with labels) to 13 Domes where Doctoral Consortium posters (1 Dome, 3 posters), Work-in-Progress posters (5 Domes, 14 posters), and Demos (7 Domes, 7 demos) will be presented
 - Domes are inter-connected in a ring, including portals to the previous and next Domes
 - Click on the portal to be tele-transported to the desired Dome (“visit room” button)
 - Make sure you have entered into the Room, and do not stay still in the lobby
 - Escape by just closing the browser

Links to a Starting Room per participant will be provided via email

Mozilla Hubs (Posters, Demos)

- How to Use it. Basic Controls:
 - Use your preferred browser
 - Enter the Provided URL (click on “Enter Room”). Sign in, if first time
 - Set your Name and Avatar. Settings during session (at top left):
